RONERIA CARACAS

A trip around the globe never tasted so good.

Ronería Caracas is your introduction to the delicious diversity of rum. Distilled from the many by-products of sugarcane, rum can sip sweet, salty, spicy or smoky depending on its provenance and base product. Have a few sips to travel from Brooklyn to Venezuela (home of añejo rum) to the the French Islands (home of rhum agricole) to Guyana (home of demerara rum) to Brazil (home of cachaça, rum's sister) and back without leaving our bar! Salud!

Ronería Caracas Tasting Flight 30

One ounce of each of our featured rums with orange slices, dark chocolate and coffee beans.

FEATURED RUMS

1796 Santa Teresa Solera Rum (Venezuela) 13

The first premium añejo rum in the world to be aged in the solera method (like a sherry), this sipping rum showcases the rich style of Venezuelan rum.

Rhum Clément VSOP (Martinique) 13

A traditional Martinique rhum agricole (rum made with a base of sugar cane juice), this sipping rum is aged for at least four years. Less than 5% of rum is made in the rhum agricole style.

El Dorado 15 Year (Guyana) 14

A class example of the rich, dense and luscious style of demerara rum native to Guyana. This profile is created by a unique wooden pot still used in Guyana, a small country east of Venezuela on the Caribbean coast of South America.

Amburana Cachaça (Brazil) 14

Brazil's famous export, cachaça is distilled from fresh sugarcane juice. This single-origin cachaça is distilled just a few hours north of Rio de Janeiro and is aged in native amburana barrels for two years.
